At the fall meetings, SCIL discussed starting a small group dedicated to reaching out to LIS students interested in information literacy instruction. While still in the works, the committee will be charged to (draft):

This group will work towards building our community of instruction librarians by reaching out to working practitioners and LIS students interested in information literacy instruction in the Southern California areas. The goal is to provide networking opportunities and continuing education to encourage growth in the area of information literacy instruction, and involvement in SCIL. Additionally, this committee will work towards raising awareness of the importance of instruction in academic library positions.
