

Please plan to join your colleagues of Academic Librarians' Interest Group North (ALIGN) on our summer field trip—

Friday
11th August 2017

Golden Gate National Recreation Area Archives

9<sup>30</sup>–11<sup>30</sup> am

Visit the Presidio of San Francisco—with its views of the Golden Gate Bridge, Marin Headlands, and Palace of Fine Arts—to explore collections on the Spanish, Mexican, and American history and culture of the Presidio and its civilian National Park Service successor, the GGNRA

Internet Archive

1–2pm

Learn the story and methods behind this monumental effort to preserve and make freely available the historical content of the Internet via the Wayback Machine's website snapshots and countless books and recordings in the public domain

Join us for the morning or afternoon tour...or better yet, both!

Lunch following the GGNRA morning tour at Lime Tree Southeast Asian Kitchen on Clement Street

Due to venues' group tour requirements, touring party size will be limited to 15— make your reservations now!

Contact Ken Lyons (1 831 459 2593) to reserve your spot

Rather than provide detailed directions that you'll likely ignore and just find via GPS, here are the relevant addresses, along with detailed directions for getting from the Presidio Archives to Lime Tree and the Internet Archive (as pictured in the map above)

PRESIDIO ARCHIVES

667 McDowell Street, Presidio of San Francisco

LIME TREE SOUTHEAST ASIAN KITCHEN

836 Clement Street (between 9th and 10th avenues)

INTERNET ARCHIVE

300 Funston Avenue (at Clement Street)

PARKING

Presidio Archives have a free parking lot adjacent to the building

Lime Tree is a ten-minute drive away, and there are SFMTA pay-lots at both Clement & 8th Avenue and Clement & 9th Avenue

Internet Archive is a three-block walk from Lime Tree