

Jok Madut Jok, Ph.D.
Department of History, Loyola Marymount University
June 3, 2005

Sudan Resources

Darfur Information Center <http://www.darfurinfo.org>
Includes articles on the conflict

Physicians for Human Rights <http://www.phrusa.org>
See Sudan and Darfur

UN Inter-regional Information Network <http://www.irinnews.org>
Sponsored by the UN Office of Humanitarian Affairs

International Crisis Group <http://www.crisisgroup.org> independent, non-profit, non-governmental organization; advocacy to prevent and resolve deadly conflict.

Global Idp Project <http://www.idpproject.org/>
Monitoring internal displacement worldwide, whether due to conflicts or natural disasters.

Human Rights Watch <http://www.hrw.org>

African Studies Centre in Leiden, Netherlands <http://www.ascleiden.nl/>

Rift Valley Institute <http://www.riftvalley.net/inside/home.html>
The second Rift Valley Institute Sudan course will take place 10-15 July 2005 in Rumbek, South Sudan. The course is an intensive residential introduction to Sudan - north and south - with an emphasis on the practical application of academic knowledge to economic and social development. Scholars include:

- Dr Douglas Johnson, author of "The Root Causes of Sudan's Civil Wars"
- Dr Atta Battahani, University of Khartoum
- Dr Jok Madut Jok, author of "War and Slavery in Sudan"
- Dr Gérard Prunier, author of the forthcoming "Darfur: The Ambiguous Genocide"

University of Pennsylvania : Resources on African Health and Diseases
<http://www.africa.upenn.edu/health/>

Sudan Archaeological Research Society <http://www.sudarchrs.org.uk/>

Nubian Archaeology <http://www.ichrp.org/>

International Council on Human Rights Policy <http://www.ichrp.org/>

Sudan Archives at Durham University Library, UK <http://www.dur.ac.uk/library/asc/>

British Library, London, UK <http://www.bl.uk/>

Library of Congress, African Reading Room <http://www.loc.gov/rr/amed/>

Sudan Media Organizations:

Khartoum Monitor (English language daily) <http://www.khartoum-monitor.com/>

al-rau al-am (Arabic daily)
<http://www.fromallangles.com/newspapers/arabic-language/al-rai-al-aam.htm>

al-ayam (Arabic daily) <http://www.alayam.ma/>