

SCIL Works 2019

A STUDENT, A LIBRARIAN
& A BUJO WALK INTO A CLASSROOM...

Jillian Eslami & Maggie Clarke, CSU Dominguez Hills

The background of the slide is a photograph of a wooden desk. On the desk, there is a calendar with a grid layout, several pens and markers, and several colorful sticky notes. A green star-shaped object is also visible on the left side. The text is overlaid on this image.

UPCOMING LIBRARY WORKSHOP

ACADEMIC PLANNING WORKSHOP

Wednesday, January 30, 2019

11:30am-12:30pm

Lib 2021A

WHAT IS BULLET JOURNALING?

A completely customizable planner/journal/notebook.

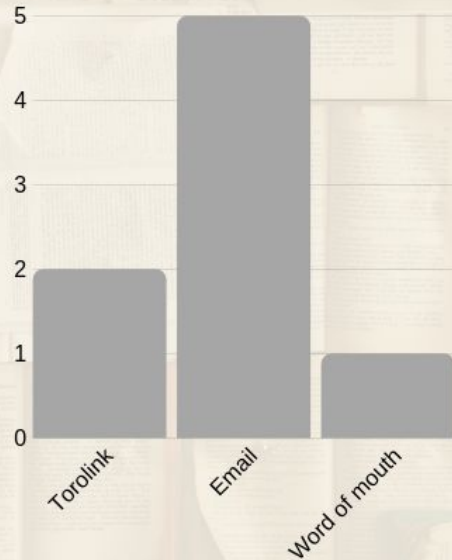

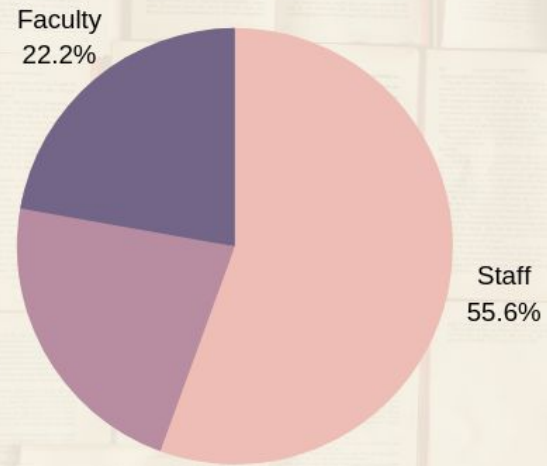

HOW IS IT RELEVANT TO RELIEVING LIBRARY ANXIETY IN STUDENTS?

- Introduces students to the library as a space and librarians as people in a more casual and fun atmosphere
- Encourages holistic view of library services
- Encourages self-efficacy in the research process

STATISTICS/FACTS

- First offered in Spring 2018. 4 students attended.
- Offered in Spring 2019 to students, faculty, and staff. 24 attendees.

WHO ATTENDED?

HOW DID THEY FIND OUT ABOUT IT?

AREAS FOR GROWTH

Participants expressed interest in BuJo programming which could include:

- Regular meetings of staff, student, and faculty BuJo enthusiasts
- Specialized workshops on topics such as: the research process or paper planning

THANKS!

Want to learn more? Here are some recommended Bullet Journal Resources:

bulletjournal.com

Pinterest

Instagram

r/bulletjournal